Board of Health Notified March 24, but No Investigation Yet.

Alice Findley's Drunken Father Locked Her in with Him.

A shocking case of neglect on the part of the officials connec en with the Brooklyn Health Board came 10, light this morning when Andrew Findley, of 246 Prospect avenue, Brooklyn was arraighed on a charge of intoxication in the Butler Street Police Court. Late yesterday afternoon Supt. Wilken, of the Brooklyn Children's Society, received an anonymous postal card asking him to investigate the case of a child suffering from scarlet fever at 240 Prospect avenue.

Officer Cosching was detailed to investigate the case. He went directly to the house, a

Henry Dandas, who lives on the top floor, came downstairs. Dundas said he was the man who wrote the postal-card. He said that fittle Alice was taken with scarlet fever about ten days ago.

By E Hosbrouck, of 350 Ninth street, was called and prescribed for the child. Five mays ago, Phodley, the girl's lather, came in drank, and has since been to an almost unconscious condition most of the time.

Dundas said that the child is mother, Mrs. Another problem by Mrs. Another policies in both Canada and Mrs. Another problem by Mrs. Anot

At the time Dundas wrote to Supt. Wil-kin, he says he also wrote to Dr. Hasbrouck and asked him what he was going to do about the case.

According to Dundas, Dr. Hasbrouck re-plied by letter that all that was needed was

At the Board of Health this morning it was learned that Dr. Hasbrouck had notified the Board of the nature of Alice Findley's disease on March 24. Dr. Boyles was detailed to in restigate the case. Nothing more was done until the Department was again notified by the children's Society last night or this morning. It was said that Dr. Boyles would investigate the case, Coday.

The people in the neighborhood teel indignant that Dr. Hasbrouck should leave the case before the child was out of danger, and that the Board of Health should so long legiest to even investigate the case, to say nothing of throwing out proper safeguards.

Bundas says that it is little short of a miracle that the whole neighborhood has not experienced a scarlet-fever scourge.
